Afton Villa Killeady:

From Cork City: Take the main Cork to Bandon Road (N71) from Cork. After passing under the Viaduct continue until you reach a roundabout (Halfway Roundabout) where you turn right for Halfway. Immediately after the roundabout you cross a bridge and come to a T junction with an old concrete pillarbox on the corner. Turn left (following the signpost for Crossbarry.) Just before you get into Killeady you will come to a 90 degree right bend over a bridge. Some of the stone wall is painted with yellow and black stripes. Just after this there is a right hand turn with Barrett's Bar on the corner. Directly opposite this there is an entrance to a gravel car park. On the back right corner of the car park there is a gate to the dressing rooms and pitches.

From Bandon: Take the main Bandon to Cork road (N71) from Bandon. Coming out of Innishannon (on the Cork side) there is a climbing / slow lane. Where this lane ends, outside Webb's caravans, turn left. Immediately after this turn the road forks. Take the right fork. Follow this road until you come to a T junction. Turn right and continue until you come to a narrow bridge with stone walls painted yellow and black. Immediately after this turn right into a gravel car park. On the back right corner of the car park there is a gate to the dressing rooms and pitches.

Ard-Na-Laoi Leemount Cross

Ballinhassig Gortnaclough, Ballinhassig:

From Cork City: Take the main Cork to Bandon Road (N71) from Cork. After passing under the Viaduct continue until you reach a roundabout (Halfway Roundabout) where you turn right for Halfway. Immediately after the roundabout you cross a bridge and come to a T junction with an old concrete pillarbox on the corner. Turn left (following the signpost for Crossbarry.) Drive along this road until you come to a sharp left bend. Immediately after the bend turn right at a signpost for Barry O'Hallrahan's Fitted Furniture. Drive up this hill for about 1 mile. You will come to a fork in the road with a farmyard on the right. Take the left fork. Around the next left bend the entrance for the ground is immediately on the left.

From Bandon: Take the main Bandon to Cork road (N71) from Bandon. Coming out of Innishannon (on the Cork side) there is a climbing / slow lane. Where this lane ends, outside Webb's caravans, turn left. Immediately after this turn the road forks. Take the right fork. Follow this road until you come to a T junction where you must turn left or right. This is Crossbarry. Turn right. Follow this road until you come to a bridge with the walls painted black and yellow. Turn left past Barretts Bar. The road immediately forks. Take the right fork (giving way to traffic coming from the left). Follow this road for just over a mile until you come to the first crossroads. On the left there will be a house with a concrete "railing" held up by concrete pillars (painted a distinctive Salmon colour at time of writing this in Oct 2001). Turn right here. Follow this road approx. a half mile. After a 90 degree left bend there are 3 houses on the right side of the road followed by the entrance.

Hibernians Shanbally

Head for Ringaskiddy Ferry Port and take right at roundabout in Shanbally village. After 1 mile turn in to the slip road to your right on dangerous bend

Hillington Hillington Park

First of all the pitch is about 8 miles from Blackpool, and is kind of in the middle of nowhere.

Go right through Blackpool and head for Dublin Hill. Go past Dublin Hill and keep going straight. When you pass the Black Man pub you must take the road to the right (you must veer off from the main road). Keep going straight on, until you come to a crossroads. There will be a big garage opposite you. You must turn left here.

From here on, you will be heading into the countryside. Stay on the main road for the next few miles. You will pass True Temper factory on your left. Keep on the main road until you see a road going off to the right. This road just veers off again from the main road, you will recognise it as there is a telephone pole standing on the grass patch between the two roads (THIS IS ROUGHLY 4 MILES FROM THE CROSSROADS). Once you take this road, you carry on straight again for the next couple of miles, You do not come off the main road. you will enter a neighbourhood watch area, there will be a sign indicating this. You will see a large white house on your right, the pitch is just after this house(30-40 yards). There is a gate to the pitch, drive slowly after the house in case you miss this.

To summarize, after you turn right at the crossroads, you will only come off the main road once. This is about 4 miles after the crossroads and you take the road to the right. You will know the road by the telephone pole (I'm pretty sure this is the only right hand side road you can take on the way, but I could be wrong).

Its straight on all the way then.

Innishvilla. "Jake O'Donoghue Park".

Directions: coming from Cork go through Innishannon Village and across the bridge taking an immediate left at the statue of the smithy (instead of continuing on the main road to Bandon).
